

Contents

- 1 Members
- 2 Lectures
- 3 Collaborative work
- 4 Referential content
- 5 Mandatory Bibliography
- 6 Banner

Members

Prof. Adrian Curaj, Dan Grosu

Lectures

The initial format of this module included four lectures:

- Lecture 1 - the power of visions
- Lecture 2 - the nature of visions
- Lecture 3 - visionary project
- Lecture 4 - vision of the crowds

Collaborative work

- Introduction to Foresight
- Participatory nature of Foresight
- Communicating Foresight results
- Strategy Formulation
- Strategic Intelligence
- Risk management
- Visioning
- Corporate Foresight
- Future of Communication
- Future of Social Media

Referential content

- Clarifications: Visions in Foresight
- Narrative: Tying the Camel in Kuala Lumpur

Mandatory Bibliography

- Deliberating Foresight Knowledge for Policy and Foresight Knowledge Assessment

Banner

All the FORWiki pages developed within the scope of this project must include its banner.

Project Visions and Visioning

This article is developed within the scope of the Project Visions and Visioning, an effort to enhance Foresight learning through collaborative work.

The code for introducing the banner in a page is:

```
{| class="wpb collapsible innercollapse tmbx tmbx-notice {{#ifeq:{{{small|}}}|yes|mbox-
|- class="wpb-header"
! colspan="2" class="mbox-text" | [[Project Visions and Visioning]]
|-
| class="mbox-image" | [[File:Vision.jpg]]
| class="mbox-text" | This article is developed within the scope of the '''[[Project Visions
Foresight learning through collaborative work.
|}<noinclude>
[[Category: Project banners|eLearning2.0]]
</noinclude>
```